TROUBLES ART

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMME

Art has often provided the most profound and critical responses to conflict. The Troubles in Northern Ireland are no exception.

National Museums NI has selected a range of challenging and evocative artworks from its collections to go on tour, starting at Nerve Visual, Ebrington, Derry-Londonderry, in January 2019.

Registration is now open for a free programme to further explore the exhibition and its subject matter. Over a six week period you will:

- Meet the artists behind the artworks
- Visit the Ulster Museum in Belfast
- Watch and review exclusive film screenings
- Learn creative writing and make your own art

Duration: Six weeks beginning January 23

Time: 1pm - 4pm (including a 10am - 5pm visit to Belfast)

Register: Contact Community Engagement Officer Donal McAnallen - donal.mcanallen@nmni.com or 028 9039 5083 / 073 9379 8887
